 Project Peace

Dr. Katharine Hayhoe

May Climate Change Presentation

On Sunday, May 18, 4-5:30pm, Project Peace and Piedmont Church team up to host a presentation by climate change expert Katharine Hayhoe in the Sanctuary.

Called “one of the nation’s most effective communicators on climate change” by The New York Times and named one of Christianity Today’s “50 Women to Watch,” Katharine brings clarity, compassion, and credibility to a topic that affects us all. With wisdom and grace, she addresses skepticism, overcomes apathy and bridges the divide between faith and science. Her message is clear: the most important thing we can do about climate change is talk about it—and she’ll show us how.

Registration by May 15 is required. Cost is $15.

To lend a helping hand with one of these groups, contact Paul Schroeder at pschroeder@slatt.com, Steve Schibsted at Sschibsted@PiedmontChurch.org or Don Ashburn at Don@PiedmontChurch.org

Cantata Ask $6k Away from $40k

The New York premiere of Stephen Main's cantata The Image is now less than a month away. It will be performed at 6:30pm EDT on June 4 at Trinity Church Wall Street. Steve will be flying to NYC on June 1 to be part of the two dress rehearsals with the 40-piece orchestra and 60-voice choir on June 2 and 3. He will be playing the piano solos for the performance.

If you are planning to go to New York for the performance, please let Pat Leicher know (patleicher@gmail.com). We want to reserve seats together and are hoping to plan a post-concert celebration.

We have received a wonderful contribution of $15,000 towards the cost of the orchestra and are now only about $6,000 short of the amount we have to raise. Can you help? Please send a contribution to the church and mark it NY Concert. Your donation will be tax deductible.

We are also hoping to have a live stream of the concert at the church, but we need people to coordinate the event. Can you help with this? Again, please contact Pat Leicher.

At some point following the concert we will have a composite video from 15 cameras that we can show and post on our website. This event will put Piedmont Community Church on the musical map.

Lending Library, Spiritual Growth

Our church lending library is full of spiritual food for the soul and we're excited to share them all with our community. Our only request is that books be returned. Even if you've had a book for many months or even years, we'd love them back...no questions asked.

Books will have a "Return to Piedmont Church" on the inside cover. Contact Suzie Skugstad suzie@hsdesigneb.com to donate.

Online Bible Study

Mondays at 10am, Don Ashburn leads an online study. The focus will be on the Book of Revelation.

To participate fully, no previous experience in Bible study is expected or required. Just come with an open heart and mind and see where the Spirit leads you.

Chancel Flower Donations

Flowers bring life and beauty to our Sanctuary. They are an offering to the Lord and a gift to our worship community.

Our church has a long tradition of inviting flower donations. The donor makes a dedication that is printed at the top of the Sunday bulletin, a way to glorify God and to share with the church family important memories, life events and gratitudes.

The Altar Guild has just updated the flower donation process. You can donate through the Church Center app, via the church website or by scanning a QR code here.

You can also sign up in the Courtyard after worship on May 11. Please stop by the Deacons' table in the Courtyard for a handout with complete information.

Presently, we are inviting donations through September. Contact Julie McDonald at julieemcdonald@yahoo.com
